SPELLING BEE RULES

1. After the pronouncer gives the contestant a word, the contestant should pronounce the word before spelling it.
2. The contestant may request the pronouncer to re-pronounce the word, define it, or use it in a sentence. The pronouncer shall grant the request until the judges agree that the word has been made reasonably clear to the contestant. Judges may disqualify any contestant who ignores a request to start spelling. (NOTE: Standard procedure is that the pronouncer will make a sentence of all words, whether requested or not.)
3. Having started to spell a word, a contestant shall not be permitted to change letters already pronounced. He/she may retrace the spelling from beginning, but in the retracing there can be no change of letters and their sequence from those first pronounced. If there is any change in the letters and their sequence, the speller will be disqualified.
4. Upon missing the spelling of a word, the contestant immediately drops out of the contest. The next word on the pronouncer's list is given to the next contestant.
5. When the contestants are reduced to two, the elimination procedure changes. At that point, when the first contestant misspells a word, the second contestant shall be given the opportunity to spell that same word. If the second contestant spells that word correctly, plus the next word on the pronouncer's list, then the second contestant shall be declared the winner.
6. If the second contestant misspells the new word, then the new word shall be referred to the first contestant. If the first contestant spells that word correctly, plus the next word on the pronouncer's list, then the first contestant shall be declared the winner.
7. If both spellers misspell the new word, both shall continue in the contest with the first contestant being given the next word. The contest shall then continue under Rules 5 and 6.
8. Any questions relating to the spelling of a word should be referred to the judges by the contestant(s) immediately after the spelling of the word and before the next word is pronounced. No protest will be heard after that word has been given to another contestant. When only two spellers remain, if both have misspelled the same word, the correct spelling will be given to the audience. Then the contest will resume by giving the first speller a new word.
9. The judges are in complete control of the Spelling Bee. Their decision shall be final on all questions.
10. If the word list is depleted, random words will be given from the next level.
